Which were read.

The house adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

T U E S D A Y, December 6, 1791.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the bill to incorporate the Queen-Anne's county presbyterian congregation, and to vest in them certain parcels of land, was read the second time, and committed for amendment.

On motion, the question was put, That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby authorized and required to credit Robert Amos, junior, collector of the two shillings and six-penny tax for the year 1791, for the sum of £.304 18 11 $\frac{1}{2}$  for insolvencies allowed to Robert Amos, senior, collector of Harford county for the years 1783 and 1785, by the commissioners of the tax, but for which he never obtained a credit? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Pinkney, appeared as follow:

So it was determined in the negative.

On motion, Leave given to bring in a bill to enable the inhabitants of Durham parish, in Charles county, to elect vestrymen and churchwardens for said parish. ORDERED, That Mr. Craik, Mr. M'Pherson and Mr. Comegys, be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

The additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the relief of certain purchasers of confiscated property, was read the second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

Mr. Crabb, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of the presbyterian congregation near Bladenburgh, report, that they have taken the same under their consideration, and find that John Brady, by his last will and testament, devised to the meeting-house near Bladenburgh the sum of one hundred pounds current money, and directed the same to be paid into the hands of the committee of the said meeting-house; that by the constitution, section 34, the said devise is void, unless by consent and approbation of the legislature; the committee therefore recommend that a law may pass, validating the said devise, and directing the executor of the said Brady to pay the said sum of one hundred pounds agreeable to the directions of the aforesaid will. All which is submitted to the honourable house.

By order,

C. WAYMAN, clk.

Which was read the first and second time, concurred with, and leave given to bring in a bill pursuant thereto. ORDERED, That Mr. Crabb, Mr. Wright and Mr. S. Smith, be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.
